REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS PURSUANT TO SECTION 302(b) OF THE CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET ACT OF 1974

SEPTEMBER 9 (legislative day, JUNE 12), 1980.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. CHURCH, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, submitted the following

REPORT

COMPLETED ORIGINAL

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET ACT REQUIREMENTS

The Committee on Foreign Relations submits the following report in compliance with section 302(b) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974.

Section 302(b) of the Budget Act requires, as soon as practicable after the conference report on the first concurrent resolution on the budget or any subsequent resolution is agreed to, the committee to submit to the Senate a report as to how it would subdivide its allocation among subcommittees or programs. Such allocation must also be subdivided between uncontrollable and controllable amounts. Since in the case of the Committee on Foreign Relations, all legislative authority is vested in the full committee, the allocations of budget authority and outlays will be reflected as full committee items.

AMOUNTS ALLOCATED TO THE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

The first concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 1981 (H. Con. Res. 307) allocates $11,894,976,000 in budget authority and $8,879,898,000 in outlays to the Committee on Foreign Relations for fiscal year 1980. The resolution also sets spending targets of $12,631,359,000 in budget authority and $10,423,427,000 in outlays for fiscal year 1981.

UNCONTROLLABLE AMOUNTS[1] ALLOCATED TO THE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

In accordance with section 302(b) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee on Foreign Relations has subdivided, by category, the budget authority and outlay of uncontrollable amounts

[1] All of the items allocated to the Committee on Foreign Relations are trust funds or other permanent budget authority items which do not require periodic reauthorization. Under the terms of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, such amounts are "uncontrollable."
